G. CHOICE OF PROCEDURE

It is important that you read carefully section G of the guidance leaflet before you complete this section.

There are 3 possible procedures: - written representations, hearings and inquiries. You should consider carefully which method suits your circumstances before selecting your preferred option by ticking the box.

1 THE WRITTEN REPRESENTATIONS PROCEDURE

W *

This is normally the simplest, quickest and most straightforward way of making an appeal. The written procedure is particularly suited to small-scale developments (e.g. individual houses or small groups of houses; appeals against conditions and changes of use).

* Please answer the questions below.

- a) Could the Inspector see the relevant parts of the appeal site sufficiently to judge the proposal from public land? Yes No
- b) Is it essential for the Inspector to enter the site to check measurements or other relevant facts? If so, please explain below or on a separate sheet. Yes No

2 THE HEARING PROCEDURE

H

This procedure is likely to be suited to more complicated cases which require detailed discussion about the merits of a proposal. At the hearing the Inspector will lead a discussion on the matters already presented in the written statements and supporting documents. Although you may indicate a preference for a hearing, the Inspectorate must also consider that your appeal is suitable for this procedure.

Please answer the question below.

- a) Is there any further information relevant to the hearing which you need to tell us about? If yes please explain below. Yes No

SEE JUSTIFICATION SHEET

3 THE INQUIRY PROCEDURE

I

This is the most formal of procedures. Although it is not a court of law the proceedings will often seem to be quite similar, as the parties to the appeal will usually be legally represented and expert witnesses may be called to give evidence. Although you may indicate a preference for an inquiry the Inspectorate must also consider that your appeal is suitable for this procedure.

Please answer the questions below.

- a) How long do you estimate the inquiry will last? No. of days
(Note: We will take this into consideration, but please bear in mind that our estimate will also be informed by others' advice and our own assessment.)
- b) How many witnesses do you intend to call? No. of witnesses
- c) Is there any further information relevant to the inquiry which you need to tell us about? If so, please explain below. Yes No

Choice of Procedure

This appeal meets the criteria for an Informal Hearing listed in Annex 1, of The Planning Inspectorate's guide; 'Making your Appeal' (March 2011), as set out below:

1. This application follows another similar scheme at Garden Road (a neighbouring site) which was recently allowed at appeal and was also heard at an informal hearing. There are similar issues across both these schemes, so the matters up for debate will have been narrowed, so there is no need for evidence to be tested by formal cross-examination;
2. There is not significant public interest in the application;
3. The case and that of the LPA and interested persons is unlikely to take more than one day to be heard; and
4. It will be beneficial to be able to discuss the merits of the case on site. The informal hearing is the only method of appeal which allows for this.
