

Site Photos – proposed external seating area

Proposed external seating area – Nando's will install planters and fixed external furniture to provide a vibrant external seating area, in the demised area previously approved at the premises. The planting, lighting and tables and chairs will enhance this space, providing privacy between the external dining area and the surrounding properties.