

Archaeological Statement

The site is approximate 0.5 hectares. The proposals shows an indicative dwelling footprint of 132sqm. The indicative visuals also shows that the building will be sat on deep rafters sat off the ground level to allow movement of ecology, animals, etc. The intention is not to have deep foundations that may have an impact on archaeological findings, or tree roots.

We would be happy for an archeological condition to be included with any reserved matters application.