Car Park Construction

Car park to be constructed to minimise impact on root systems in accordance with BS 5837:2005. Construction within the RPA (root protection area) to be designed to avoid root loss due to excavation and minimise localised compaction. In these areas a cellular confinement system shall be installed as part of the sub-base to act as a load suspension layer.

Gravel wearing course to be installed to provide a permeable, gas-porous surface treatment. Edge restraints within the RPA to be timber sleepers positioned using track or road pins. Kerb edging to be used in areas outside the RPA.
