Comment: As a resident of Vivienne Close in Cambridge Park near to Marble Hill I was relieved when the first application was withdrawn and changed. Many local people felt the first proposals did not reflect local problems and needs. The reconsultation led to many changes on things that concerned everybody.

I see that now we have no change to the Stable Block exterior, No new buildings, reduced visitor projections and traffic and more carefully thought landscaping. The worries over excessive noise and smell seem to have been addressed. Most importantly the local community have felt that many of their ideas have been taken up, such as on ecology and natural habitat.
