Type of comment: Support the proposal

Comment: We are delighted that the Marble Hill project has moved forward. The most important aspects to this was the recognition that Marble Hill has great historic significance, that the improvement plans will stand the test of time and that anyone in the local and wider community had a right to have their voice heard. It is clear the current proposals go a very long way to meeting those criteria.

The Environment Trust have been an active and enthusiastic contributor to the Marble Hill landscape especially through our creation of the model market garden. This of course was only achieved in part through the valiant efforts of a cohort of volunteers. Opening up Marble Hill is long overdue and we are pleased to support the current project as it builds on community engagement.
