the current objection lies in considering any significant works like those proposed in the Mortlake area WHILE HAMMERSMITH BRIDGE IS SHUT. While the bridge remains shut - and local businesses and traders have been informed it may be shut for 3 years or a significant amount of time - no work should be undertaken in terms of the redevelopment of these sites, otherwise there will be an unworkable bottleneck in Mortlake and Barnes. Already traffic is heavily congested and at times at a standstill now; to add in building trucks, suppliers etc into an already overly congested area is just not tenable until the issue with Hammersmith Bridge is addressed and resolved.
