Comment: I seriously object to the revised parking arrangements, which will see a reduction in the few parking spaces on site. The lack of provision of visitor parking will also stretch the availability of public parking on the surrounding roads. By 5pm on Sundays it is nearly impossible to find a parking space as far away as Mereway Road.

The impact of more traffic on the narrow roads around the redevelopment area will also increase the risk of accidents, particularly to young pedestrians, of which there are many in the area.

Finally, there is no provision for additional spaces for medical care or schools.
