

1. Existing View From North Terrace of Ham House

2. Proposed View From North Terrace of Ham House

Proposed view shows low level closeboarded fence with planting to front has very minimal impact on the openness of the MOL, and very negligible effect on the character of the area. The view is shown in the winter months when the trees and boundary are at their most bare, with the most visibility.