Comment: There is no real need for an additional secondary school in this area, and in any case there are far better sites in the Borough if one is needed, such as Barnes Common/Rocks Lane vicinity, with the existing extensive sports facilities. I do not understand why the Council are so keen on the idea, unless it is a sort of creation of school places which may (or may not) be needed in the future with minimum cost to the council-someone else can pay for a new school, not us. The congestion at Mortlake station and level crossing at "schools out" time will be unbearable and dangerous.
