Comment: I am concerned that development is still too big for the local area. Some of the buildings in the revised proposal are still above 7 storeys high and therefore not in keeping with the local area. The development will negatively affect the traffic in the area and increase air pollution. Mortlake is already very congested due to the closure of Hammersmith bridge. It is also already very difficult to find parking in the area. I don't think the roads and Mortlake railway station will be able to cope with the additional traffic and number of passengers, caused by the new development and new school. I also object to the loss of the protected brewery playing fields that have been available to local schools and the community for years.

I would also like the new scheme to include a river bus and access to the development from the river. The number of affordable houses has not increased much from the previous proposal.
