Comment: Families move to east sheen for the state primary schools, they're brilliant.

The secondary state options, however, are poor, forcing people to move, send their kids privately or to attend schools which aren't well attended by locals or high achieving.

The development, if done well is a huge opportunity to create an exciting heart of Mortlake and an exceptional school, for locals-who will walk to school- just like at Thomson House and Sheen Mount -where they actively discourage driving.

The space allocated for the number of pupils is less than recommended-this should be re-examined
