Comment: The need for, and allocation of significant resources to, an additional secondary school is not supported by verifiable data or local needs. There are several secondary schools in the immediate area (two of which are Richmond borough schools), which would benefit from greater expansion and investment. In short, a proper discharge of statutory duties and responsibilities should involve the allocation of funds and resources to Richmond Park Academy School, Christ's School and the Chiswick School, not the building of a new secondary school.
