Comment: This is a huge development which will tower over local buildings, being much higher than other properties within the area. It is going to result in both overshadowing of properties and a loss of light to those in the vicinity - particularly the large commercial unit towering over Windmill Road. The design is not within the character of the local area.

Such a large number of dwellings on one site - with so many car parking spaces - is going to result in a huge increase in the volume of traffic. Neither Holly Road or Windmill Road have the capacity for this. There is frequent congestion in Windmill Road in the mornings as it is. Not only residents of the new development but visitors, delivery drivers and employees of commercial buildings will increase traffic exponentially and far beyond the capacity of the local roads.
