Comment: The five storey development is too high. Many of the five storey buildings will overlook neighbours and intrude on their privacy. The proposed development is not in keeping with the local area and too big. I have concerns that there will be insufficient parking. The very fact that it has been turned down should reflect the strength of feeling locally against. I also raise concerns for the deadline for objections, which coincides with the peak of the summer holiday when many people who may have objected are away. At the very least the deadline for objections should be extended.
