Comment: As a daily visitor to my family in Hampton Hill & have used Bushy park & the high street for over 50 years. I wish to strongly object to this proposal. It is not appropriate for Hampton Hill, it's too overbearing, would invade all of the surrounding residents privacy - which will have a detrimental effect on their health & well being. It looks like something that should be built in central London, not in a small quaint village. Any bicycle policy is pointless, you promised this in the new block of flats in School Rd a few years ago & as predicted no one enforces it & people have cars that spill out onto the already full main roads.

You've recently allowed lots of new flats in the high street to be built that are currently empty. There is a new development on the junction of Windmill road in progress. Surely you should wait & see what the impact of these developments will bring before building any more?

Please learn from Hounslow Borough's mistakes & stop cramming these flats into every possible space, it is terrible for the services & infrastructure. You are eroding this beautiful little village at a very rapid rate!
