Comment: Thames Young Mariners is a fantastic asset to our community. I used it as a pupil back in the 1980s, 40 years I still using it as a swimmer and my kids also attend the various activities on offer. The location is perfect and the plans give a huge opportunity to develop it into a resource fir for the current generation and beyond. The appreciation of the dangers relating to water is a key life skill and to have the opportunity to do this safely should be supported. TYM now also has a thriving open water swimming community, all shapes and sizes, all abilities and very welcoming. I look forward to seeing this developing further with the implementation of the new plans. This is absolutely great news for everyone.
