This is a bit of land for a working class sport. Has been for centuries.

Adults, children.....boys and girls use the pitches to play football.

Football is educational as it encourages teamwork.

Generations of families use these pitches.

Football is a community.... a network of working class families that will if need be support each other.

The Jolly Gardeners a local hub.

Football in this area has a history.

Build and you will erase it.

Working class men , teenagers, Boys need leisure time.

Comradeship to share stresses of life together.

Can we value their community plz.
