Comment: These plans are still way out of proportion for the area that you are trying to develop. The height of the buildings and the scale of the development do not fit in with the local area. It will change the entire feel of the local area, and make it a much more unpleasant place to live.

We already has some severe traffic issues at rush hour, that are progressively getting worse.

Windmill road and the high street are completely gridlocked on a daily basis, and a development of this size will accentuate this even more.

We strongly still object to a development of this scale.
