Comment: This proposed development remains overbearing and unneighbourly.

The minor changes from the previous application do little to address this.

The majority of the points raised by the Planning Inspector when rejecting the developers previous application have been ignored.

The central hulk proposed is far too big for this site and its location on the edge of the village conservation area.

I suggest that the council planning officers familiarise themselves with the Planning Inspector's report and save everybody a lot of time by telling the planning committee that this proposal is a non-starter.
