Comment: There is a significant lack of infrastructure to support such a large school. The demographic evidence does not support this level of need. There is no need for a secondary school; original figures are out-dated, and on revision should show no need for a new school at all. I would support moving Thomson House primary school to the new site; this has several benefits: reduced risk to life and congestion at the level crossing and freeing up Mortlake Green as this is used as an overflow for school activities.
