Comment: I write to support all the points made by the Mess committee in their recent representation.

This does not imply support for the scheme as a whole, all of which reeks of inadequacy and failure. A decade-long engagement of Richmond Council and Planning Department with this developer still offers no solution to the problems of isolation by traffic and danger from the level crossing, only a dated design of overwhelming mediocrity. This represents a real failure of local government, a disastrously banal response to a site so rich in possibilities.
