Comment: The proposed redevelopment of 74 Oldfield Road should not go ahead.

Firstly and most importantly the safety of children attending the many local schools would be compromised, Oldfield Road is tricky to comprehend as is let alone with the extensive amount of traffic and most likely larger vehicles driving in and out.

Another reason is the increased congestion in this area which is near a busy crossroads, a railway crossing (Hampton Station), and Waitrose which is next door to 74, Oldfield Road. There are customers driving in and out of the latter seven days a week but Waitrose is limited to strict time slots for deliveries to control disturbance to the neighbourhood.

Parking problems will increase.
