

Design precedents

The following images show properties on our road, which have the same roof design as we have proposed, there have the hipped side roof with a part gable end, allowing the roof dormer to sit behind the main original roof. Our design copies this design feature.

