Comment: My main objection to the development of Sion Court is that I consider the plans to be an over-development in a Conservation Area. For this reason it is not appropriate to put a new build so close to the end of the Ferry Road terrace. (1852).

Also, parking is already a problem locally. This development could well contribute to said problem.

But, back to my main point. I should like to point out that the word 'conserve' (as in Conservation Area) means 'to protect something of environmental or cultural importance from harm.'

I think this says it all.
