Comment: I can completely understand from the schools perspective the desire to increase numbers. Unfortunately, the parking and traffic has a serious impact on the area. The streets simply aren't designed to have so much traffic. I have been trapped in my house due to standstill traffic when I lived in Gloucester Road previously. And I feel so sorry for the Wensleydale gardens residents. If the numbers are increased there should be serious solutions to the traffic coming into and out of these roads. It's terrible as it is without additional numbers.
