Comment: I am apprenticed by Eel Pie Boatyard as a boatmaster. I work there 3 days a week. The other days I work at Cruismaster Boatyard on Eel Pie Island , or other locations on the Thames, repairing boats.

I live in Sunbury. Most days I use my car to carry tools and parts to jobs.

If I can't park near Eel Pie Island footbridge it will directly impinge on my ability to carry out my work.

Also, I have friends with young children who love the Diamond Jubilee Gardens .

Also, the proposed buildings look awful. The London waterfront is overwhelmed with such developments already. Twickenham is the last surviving gem of real accessible useable waterfront, please don't take it away.
